Commissioner Halleck informed the Board that the Ohio EPA released information regarding the violations at the Negley Landfill and PennOhio Waste, LLC will pay nearly $50,000 in civil penalties with $40,000 going to the Middleton Township Trustees. He stated Commissioner Weigle has worked hard over the past year in regard to the violations.

Commissioner Halleck also informed the Board that Senator Sherrod Brown has been in contact with him regarding the COVID monies and what it can be used for. The Board has had several project requests from a Bear Cat, a Morgue, a Storage Building, a Lift Station, Microfilm documents, Parking Lot, Software Upgrade, Weights & Measures Truck, to name a few. There are a host of projects we want to do, but that all depends on what the money can be used for. He appreciates Senator Brown, Senator Bill Johnson and Representative Tim Ginter for paying attention to our needs.
