Mr. Nickolas Richards of Franklin Township, Salineville, was present to discuss a well pad on his property that has been there since 2013 and they have been trying to shut it down for months, as a result, his water is not drinkable. He has been to the Health Department several times and was told not to drink the water and buy bottled water. He is not getting satisfactory results. Pete Conkle, in attendance, was asked if he can help Mr. Richards and this matter will be investigated.

Being no further business Commissioner Papanodis adjourned the Commissioners regular meeting.
