Heavenly Father,

I thank you Lord for this beautiful new morning that you've given to us. Without the rain, Lord God we have no flowers and we have no rainbows. I ask Lord that you would be with this group of men that makes decisions for our county that you would bless them and keep them; give them guidance and wisdom. I pray for all those that work in this office and in our government building that you would watch over and give wisdom to them as well. Thank you Lord that we can come to you. I pray for the Siefky family this morning and that you would be with them and hold their hearts Lord close to you. Give peace that passes understanding and meet their needs. Help us Lord to show compassion and kindness to those around us today and to watch over our country and those who protect it. Bless our country and those in leadership positions. Thank you Jesus; in your precious name we pray. Amen.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Commissioner Weigle stated there is a 911 Program Review Committee meeting tomorrow to finalize the plan. He also wanted to address a social media post regarding supporting a 911 tax. He referred to HB 128.22 that was passed by the Senate and he wanted it to be clear that he no way stood behind this, but it would be a tough decision for a Board of Commissioners to decide if 911 were to be centralized.

Commissioner Halleck wished the best for the family on the passing of Tammy Siefke. He stated she was a dear friend and one of the most dedicated volunteers at the County Dog Pound.

The Community Development Implementation Strategy Meeting will be held March 5, 2024 from 1-4p.m. at the Columbiana County Port Authority.
